CONFEDERATE OFFICER UNION SOLDIER'S GUEST.

Colonel John F. Alexander, of Augusta county, is the guest of Judge James H. Loh, 1810 State street. Judge Loh served on the union side during the civil war, enlisting in 1861 and going all through the war in good health and without a scratch. Col. Alexander was captain of the 24th Virginia, C. S. A., of the A. P. Hill Division, General Stonewall Jackson's corps. He was at Gettysburg and after serving from the start of the war to the surrender at Appomattox Court House had the honor of turning over his sword to General Grant on that historic occasion. He was commissioned colonel of the 55th regiment of Virginia volunteers and became quite well known in a series of campaigns against the famous Bucktails, some of whom he would like to meet during his visit here. They will recall that he traded southern tobacco for theirhardtack at the Meadow Bridge in 1862.—[Harrisburg, Pa., Courier.] Judge Loh lived in Alexandria for a number of years and at one time represented the Standard Oil Company here.

FOOTBALL.

As previously announced, the Seamen's Gunners will play the Cardinals' eleven on the north Alfred street grounds Saturday afternoon. The Gunners are a dangerous crew, and as they have the reputation of being expert marksmen as well as fighters, and having secured an extra supply of ammunition to blow up our "home guard" on that day, all members of the team are daily practicing all kinds of tricks to offset any advantage that the sailor boys may have to defeat them.

The Cardinals promise to do their best to drive their rivals to the ship's turret, and make them surrender, or sink the ship with all on board. Those who have not seen the boys in action on the gridiron this season will do well to take a street car out to the grounds and watch them battle with this excellent visiting football eleven. The game starts promptly at 4:30.

THE NEW PARSONAGE.

Ground has been broken on south Washington street, adjoining the Young People's building for the erection of a parsonage for the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The new building will be 23 feet front, will set back 8 feet from the building line, and run back 90 feet. A handsome porch will be placed in front. The building will be three stories, and will contain 11 rooms, bath and reception hall. Mr. Thomas H. Nelson is the contractor.

RIVER NOTES.

A torpedo boat passed up the river this morning. The three-masted schooner Samuel D. Hubbard has arrived at W. A. Smoot & Co's wharf. She will be loaded with railroad ties by the Virginia Timber Company for Boston. The schooner Five Sisters has arrived from Cole's Landing with lumber for W. A. Smoot & Co.

ENTIRE CHANGE OF PROGRAMME.

There will be an entire change of vaudeville features and pictures at the new Opera House tonight. The star attractions of the past few nights have given place to others which will for the next three nights amuse Alexandria theatre-goers. It goes without saying that the show will be up-to-date in every particular. The baseball fans will enjoy Melvin and Bond who will be on the bill for tonight.

ACCUSED DISMISSED.

There were but two cases before the Police Court this morning. A young man had been arrested for removing some articles from the front of a dry goods store. The proprietor failed to appear and the accused was dismissed. The young man was drinking at the time he committed the offense. Another young man, who was charged with improper conduct in the street, was fined $250.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

Commencing next Sunday night evangelistic services will be held nightly at 7:45 o'clock in the First Baptist Church. Evangelist John E. Briggs will conduct the services. His specialty will be the "old-time Gospel." There will be special music led by a large chorus choir, under the direction of Mr. J. T. Preston.

Revival services are still being conducted nightly in Trinity M. E. Church and M. E. Church South.

RECEPTION FRIDAY NIGHT.

The Westminster League will give a reception to the members and friends of the Presbyterian Church in the lecture room of the church tomorrow evening. A most interesting programme has been arranged which includes several selections by Mrs. A. T. Hanson the talented reader of Washington, formerly of Alexandria.

AUCTION SALE TOMORROW.

Captain R. F. Knox, auctioneer, will offer at public sale, at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning at 609 Oronoco street, a valuable lot of household furniture, etc., including a large and valuable library.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

No business of general interest was transacted at the meeting last night of Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus. Two applications for membership were received.

PLENTY OF OYSTERS.

There is at present a plethora of oysters at the wharves of this city. They sell at from 30 to 40 cents a bushel, and sales are slow even at these figures.

PERSONAL.

Miss Mary Nalle, eldest daughter of Gen. W. Nalle, of Culpeper, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Jas. L. Kelly, on south Columbus street.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry D. Fry, of Washington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gertrude Campbell, and Mr. A. B. Duvall. No definite arrangements have been made for the wedding, but it is expected to take place some time during the latter part of the winter.

The assistant landscape gardener of the national cemetery, John L. Marcey was married yesterday evening to Miss Hannah E. Kramer, of the Arlington Rev. Mr. Pierpont, of the Arlington M. E. Church, performed the ceremony.

The condition of Mr. Walter C. Davis, who has been suffering from appendicitis, has considerably improved.

Mr. Edgar Lyles continues ill at his home in this city.

Miss Alice Brown is confined by illness to her home, No. 219 Prince street.

Mr. James Randall Caton, jr., and Miss Eva Gwynn Dent will be married at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. George A. Mushbach, on Washington street, at 8 o'clock this evening.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. H. J. Cutler, of St. Mary's Church, in the presence of only immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Marie Fannon, of this city, to Mr. Frederick S. Jackson, of Baltimore. The marriage will take place Wednesday morning November 9, at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Church.

Miss Lily Makely is the guest of Misses Ruth and Bertha Good at Rileyville.

PYTHIAN BAZAR.

A new candidate is added each night to the list on the black board running for the various articles to be voted for at the Knights of Pythias bazar in Odd Fellows' Hall. The friends of those entered in the contest are setting every effort to have their favorite carry off the prize. The ballot stood as follows last night:

Ladies' gold ring—Mrs. Thos. J. Travers, 25; Miss Sadie Bastin, 5; Miss Helen Compere, 3.

O. R. M. ring—Wm. May, 6; Francis Downham, 5; F. A. Bynum, 3.

Mirror—Mrs. Thos. Dawson, 5; Mrs. Josephine Jenkins, 5; Miss Flossie Yates, 5; Miss Lena Davis, 4.

Mandolin—Jerome Kaufman, 5; Hugo Herfurth, 5; J. J. Haley, 7.

O. O. F. pin—Geo. W. Bontz, jr., 6; Vance Peale, 3.

The evening was devoted to old-time country dances and all present seemed to have spent a pleasant time. The gypsy fortune teller will remain at the bazar until tomorrow night. On Saturday night the two companies of the uniform rank will attend, and give an exhibition drill.

CARDINALS DEFEAT EPISCOPAL HIGH SCHOOL.

The Episcopal High School football team met defeat yesterday afternoon on their field by the fast eleven of the Cardinal Athletic Club by the score of 18 to 5. The Cardinals outwitted their opponents and outplayed them all through the contest. One of the features of the game was the long runs made by Snowden and Cockrell. Triger, the full back of the Cardinals, was too much for the high school lads, they being unable to stop him in his line plunges. McBride and Hamilton also put up a swell game. Touchdowns for the Alexandrians were made by Cockrell, Snowden and McBride. Snowden kicking two goals and McBride one. Too much cannot be said of the Cardinal's front line, especially Sullivan, who put up a great game. This makes the second time the E. H. S. was ever defeated by an Alexandria team. Hawitt made the touchdown for the high school boys, but he failed at an attempt to kick goal. A large crowd of Alexandria "rooters" accompanied the team, and also helped to cheer them on to victory. This team is one of the fastest that ever represented Alexandria, and judging from the showing they made yesterday they will make the Seamen Gunners play some ball to win Saturday's game.

REV. G. B. STRICKLER, D. D., COMING.

Dr. Givens B. Strickler, Professor of Theology at Union Seminary, Richmond, has agreed to preach for his pupil, Rev. J. R. Sevier, at the Second Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening. Dr. Strickler stands without a peer among his fellow preachers. His thoughts are deep but clear and lucid, while his style is simple and plain. Before coming to the Seminary he was pastor of the largest Presbyterian Church in the south, the Central Church of Atlanta. Dr. Strickler will doubtless be heard by large congregations.

TOOLS STOLEN.

Thieves last night stole all the tools belonging to seven carpenters who are working for Mr. J. W. Devers, the contractor for the new dwelling now being erected for Mr. H. C. Linn in George Washington Park, a short distance west of the golf club house on Shooter's Hill. The police of this city have been notified and they are endeavoring to locate the thieves.

FIRE STARTS AT FUNERAL.

In bending over a casket to kiss the face of 19-year-old Letitia di Napoli during funeral services at her home in Boston, yesterday, a relative upset a candle and set fire to the house. The girl's body was partially incinerated and $800 damages done to the di Napoli home. Mourners tried to carry the blazing coffin to the street, but the flames forced them to drop it and save their own lives. After the fire was extinguished a new casket was obtained and the body taken to a cemetery.

The girl's mother became hysterical during the fire and tore handfuls of hair from her head. She is in a critical condition.

Hampton's Magazine for November, which has been received from its publishers in New York, is full of good reading from cover to cover. In its leading article, "The Girl that Disappears," General Bingham, formerly police commissioner of New York, handles the question of white slavery most forcefully and practically. Frederick Palmer contends, in an article contributed by him, that the United States is behind in military aviation; Rheta Dorr in "The Child's Day in Court" describes the juvenile court in Cleveland as an ideal one. "Tottering Political Machines," and "The Passing of Pills and Powders" are interesting articles, and five clever stories, "Plays and Players," "Personalities," editorials and current comment complete this attractive issue.

The Ridgway Company, New York city, publishers of Everybody's, present this month to the public a second magazine, entitled Adventure. It is devoted to stories of action and adventure and many well known writers contribute to the attractive first issue. Two serials are begun, noticeably one by Gouverneur Morris and the complete novelle of this month, "The Crook and the Doctor," is a thrillingly interesting story. E. Alexander Powell, F. R. G. S., tells in "Exile of the Outlands" of "The Men that Can't Come Back," "When I Was King in Botel-Tabago" and "Lion hunts in east Africa" are good articles and thirteen short stories complete this number.

FORAKER MUZZLED.

The republican state committee of Ohio, through its chairman, has called former Senator Joseph Benson Foraker off the stump in Ohio. The chairman of the state committee in his telegram calling the senator off says:

"We earnestly urge that all controversies be set aside until victory is achieved. In this we are joined by local committees and candidates on state and local tickets. Will you not aid us by dropping from future speeches all matters not involved in the contention between the republican and democratic parties in this campaign?"

Senator Foraker in his reply says: "I respectfully request that all my engagements to speak in this campaign be canceled and that you notify all local committees."

It will be noted that while the chairman did not in positive terms demand that he refrain from criticism of any member of his own party it is strongly expressed as to leave Foraker no alternative.

The action is universally regarded as making more chaotic the already tangled state situation.

THE WEATHER.

The weather was fair and mild early this morning, with a southerly breeze. Later in the day the heavens became cloudy and a light rain accompanied by a brisk southwesterly wind set in this afternoon. The Weather Bureau predicts brisk northwesterly winds and cooler weather for tonight.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. Sarah Adams fell down the stairs at her residence on south Lee street on Tuesday night and was painfully injured. She was carrying a lighted lamp in her hand at the time, but fortunately it did not break nor explode.

How would you like to be a high flyer? Do you know what it means to fly thru' space with death always staring you in the face? Well, in the first place it means the eventual conquest of the air and the aviator has got to have nerve or he will come down considerably faster than he went up. The kind of nerve that will keep his head level even tho' his machine is in a position that ent those irresistibly delicious Auto Sauces, Puddings and Food Products from Blomheim's Auth Stand and Market are capable of accomplishing most anything.

BOY KILLED BY A CARTRIDGE.

Biting on a 38-caliber cartridge in his home in Haverstraw, N. Y., early yesterday, 8-year-old Joseph Lebanti, whose mother died a year ago, and whose father had gone to work in a brick yard, was instantly killed by the explosion of the shell. Only little Joseph's brother was in the house at the time. He ran screaming to neighbors.

The two little boys were getting ready to go to school. Little Joseph remembered he had to have a pencil and hunted around the house for it. He came across a loaded cartridge in one of the drawers he dived into, and not knowing about such things put the shell into his mouth. Then he bit down on the cartridge until it exploded.

The bullet plow'd its way through the boy's head, and he fell dead. Neighbors who rushed into the house a few minutes later found little Joseph's body on the floor.

A brother of the dead boy was drowned several years ago, and another baby brother died six months ago.

BANK IN HANDS OF RECEIVERS.

A petition asking that the Galilean Fishermen's Bank, of Hampton, be placed in the hands of receivers, was filed in the Circuit Court of Elizabeth City county on Tuesday. The petition was presented on behalf of John A. Smith, a stockholder and depositor of the bank, and avers that the bank has been mismanaged for a number of years, that it is insolvent and that it is without means of meeting its obligations.

It is alleged, in the petition, that the bank has liabilities aggregating $24,010.96 and assets aggregating $20,784.62. There was no opposition to the petition, and Judge Robinson immediately named Attorneys A. W. Bassette, jr., and B. A. Lewis receivers.

The Galilean Bank is a colored institution, and was organized in 1901. Though not a large institution, the bank was regarded for sometime as being perfectly safe, and only recently has its failure to realize upon its loans forced it gradually down into an insolvent condition.

THE MAURY TABLE.

Marking the residence used in Richmond during the war period by Commodore Matthew Fontaine Maury, the noted officer of the United States navy, and later of the Confederate navy, a tablet was unveiled yesterday by the Confederate Memorial Literary Society.

Appropriate exercises were presided over by Governor Mann, of Virginia. The unveiling was performed by Mrs. James R. Worth, a daughter of the commodore.

For years the society has been endeavoring to secure federal recognition of the scientific attainments of the celebrated officer, whose efforts did much to produce great reforms in the navy, and brought about the establishment of the Naval Academy and Hydrographic office. He was one of the most renowned naval officers in the Confederate service.

Two Million Dollar Fire.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 27.—Search today of the ruins caused by the fire which last night destroyed part of the business section of Victoria fails to show any casualties, despite the many reports that several persons were dead in the debris.

The Western Union building and a large number of other lesser buildings were completely destroyed; also the Times building, Driad Hotel and Pemberton Hotel, three of the largest structures were in imminent danger but were saved.

A Good Meal

It is a noticeable fact that beer is becoming more and more commonly used as a meal time beverage and particularly in the home. There are several good reasons for this: It "fits in" well (with solid foods); it is a good appetizer; it helps digestion. Many drink it in place of coffee, because they find the latter injurious to them.

HOFBRAU BEER

Is a light brew with a full, rich flavor that finds great favor as a meal beverage. The bottled product is most convenient for home use.
